Mayor Horrigan Extends Hours At Four Akron Community “Cooling Centers”

Akron, Ohio, June 14, 2022 — Due to forecasted high temperatures, Mayor Dan Horrigan has announced that the City of Akron will extend hours at four community “cooling centers” this week. The following community centers will be open for extended hours on Wednesday and Thursday (June 15 and 16) from 8:30 AM to 9:00 PM:

Lawton Street Community Center

1225 Lawton Street
Akron, OH 44320
330-375-2825

Mason Park Community Center

700 E. Exchange Street
Akron, OH 44306
330-375-2821

Patterson Park Community Center

800 Patterson Avenue
Akron, OH 44310
330-375-2819

Summit Lake Community Center

380 W. Crosier Street
Akron, OH 44311
330-375-2826

All other community centers will also be open to the public during normal building hours and anyone in need is welcome to come cool off and get out of the heat. For a full list of center locations and hours please click here.

The City will continue to monitor for continuous high temperatures and will extend community center hours as necessary. Unless otherwise specified, the centers will return to their normal business hours starting Friday, June 17.
